Hi Shawn-

See below. I gave the other side internal document numbers rather than the bates numbers.

I need to translate the internal, global document numbers in my email below, into bates numbers of what was produced.

Can you tell me if there's an efficient way to do that in Viewpoint? For example, when I click "production image" or "production text" nothing shows up.

Thanks!
Emmett

Thanks Emmett - -

To date, we received three productions from Smart Vent. The combined Bates range for all three of the productions is SV-0000001 through SV-0036958 and the numbers below do not fall within that range. Can you please confirm that we have all the Smart vent documents and whether the below numbers are accurate.
